Information About the Unum Retained Asset Account

If approved benefits are payable to a minor and no financial guardian is appointed, payment will be made through a Unum Retained Asset Account set up in the minor's name and payable through the Bank of New York Mellon. Payment through a retained asset account will satisfy Unum's claim payment obligation. The funds may not be withdrawn from the account until the minor becomes an adult (typically age 18, but this may vary by state). The money may be withdrawn earlier by a court appointed conservator or guardian of the minor's estate. We must receive copies of the court documents appointing the conservator or guardian of the minor's estate. These documents can be provided to Unum by mailing them to the address listed on this form.

Please review the features of the Unum Retained Asset Account:

- A quarterly statement is provided, detailing the account balance, interest rate, accrued interest and account transactions for the statement period.
- Funds in the Unum Retained Asset Account are fully guaranteed by Unum Group. The funds are not protected by the FDIC, but are protected by state Guaranty Associations. You may contact the National Organization of Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Associations at nolhga.com or (703) 481-5206 to learn more about the protections provided.
- The beneficiary may leave the money in the Unum Retained Asset Account for as long as he/she wishes.
- Unum will retain the funds and invest them in its general account for as long as they remain in the Unum Retained Asset Account. Unum guarantees the account balance and will pay a competitive interest rate regardless of the investment performance of Unum's general account. Unum may derive income from the total gains received on the investment of the balance of the funds in the retained asset account.
- The interest rate is determined by monitoring rates of interest offered on similar types of accounts (i.e. checking, savings and money market accounts). Any changes to the interest rate will be disclosed via a quarterly account statement.

The interest earned on the Unum Retained Asset Account may be taxable. The beneficiary's guardian should consult a tax advisor, an investment advisor, or another financial advisor with any questions. For further information, please contact your state insurance department. You may contact us at the telephone number listed on this form.
